

Ray Kramp, bio

Ray Kramp was born in Charleston, SC, was raised in Danville, IL. Ray is a graduate of Bradley University with degree in Construction Management and a graduate degree from Creighton University in Dispute Resolution. Ray lived most of his life after college in the St. Louis area. After arriving in Indianapolis his employer asked him to get involved in the community and join an organization. A colleague, a Rotarian, introduced Ray to Rotary and invited Ray to some of his club's meetings. Being warmly greeted by Rotarians and learning of the great things they do in their communities and abroad, he decided this was an organization he wanted to be a part of. Ray joined the Rotary Club of Carmel in 2009. He has served as Vocational Chair, President 2013-2014, the Carmelfest parade committee, Foundation chair and the club's District grants manager

At the District level Ray has served as Assistant Governor, co-chair for sponsorships and operations chair for several district Conferences and Interim Membership chair.

Ray has spent his professional career in construction management and has worked on many signature projects throughout the Midwest.

Ray has two grown children and two grandchildren and is the oldest son of two loving parents who are at the young age of 89 and 87.
